Volunteer Job Description

Sonoma Humane Society training methodology and philosophy is force-free and animal-friendly, utilizing primarily positive reinforcement. SHS does not condone the use of aversive training methods, defined as “any circumstance or event that causes pain, fear, or emotional discomfort.”

Position Title: Foster Parent Volunteer	Supervisor: Foster Coordinators; Ashley Armstrong, Foster Program Manager
Location: Sonoma Humane Society and your home.	Time Commitment: 2-3 hours every day when actively fostering, possibly more if fosters are sick.
Position Description: Providing care for shelter animals that are too young, sick or stressed to be available for adoption from the shelter.
Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Providing a safe, clean, stress –free environment for different types of foster needs.</li> <li>• Administering necessary medications.</li> <li>• Communicating with the Foster Coordinators on any medical or behavioral concerns.</li> <li>• Making medical appointments to keep animals current with their vaccinations &amp; de-wormings and for any medical issues.</li> <li>• Scheduling return appointments for s/n when the animals are ready to come back to the shelter.</li> <li>• Spending time with the foster animal(s) to help socialize and comfort.</li> </ul>
Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ability to transport the animal(s) in for medical treatment on short notice, if necessary.</li> <li>• Ability to administer necessary medications.</li> <li>• Responsible and communicative, always working for the good of the shelter animal.</li> <li>• Able to keep track of due dates and scheduling appointments</li> <li>• Work with the Foster Coordinators and the shelter staff to support the mission and help the shelter animals.</li> </ul>
Benefits: Foster parents are directly involved in the saving of lives. Being a foster parent allows SHS to save many more lives than we could accommodate in the shelter alone and gives a great feeling of satisfaction and fulfilment. And what could be more rewarding than cuddling with kittens, playing with puppies or watching a shy dog or cat blossom under your care?
Feedback/Evaluation All foster parents attend a foster orientation before beginning. Foster parents also receive a weekly email newsletter with updates, foster needs, and a list of the adopted animals from the week before.
